

Utah Cultural Celebration Center News

The Utah Cultural Celebration Center is becoming recognized as one of Utah's premier destinations for arts and cultural events. The Cultural Center is the only locally driven arts and cultural complex in the Salt Lake Valley, and is perhaps the only facility of its kind offering such a unique blend of spaces and objectives.

At the heart of these objectives, the Utah Cultural Celebration Center seeks to preserve and perpetuate local cultural traditions and to become a home for local arts and artists. It is a place for people of all ages to connect to their heritage and learn about the traditions of their neighbors.

Nearly into its fifth year of operation, the Utah Cultural Celebration Center is experiencing a new level of maturity and growth. Public programs are more diverse than ever, featuring everything from grassroots, community-driven projects to internationally touring art exhibitions. The Cultural Center continues hosting festivals and many free public gatherings celebrating Utah's diverse ethnic populations, and has also found new audiences through its WorldStage! Outdoor Concerts, ARTrageous Tuesdays educational series and many other programs.

The Wild Life of Dollores Shelledy

Now through September 3 at the Utah Cultural Celebration Center

This summer, the Utah Cultural Celebration Center has partnered with wildlife sculptor and Utah resident Dollores Shelledy to host an outdoor exhibit entitled The Wild Life of Dollores Shelledy. Featuring approximately eight life-size wildlife sculptures, many of which have been shown throughout the western United States, this project is an exciting and unique partnership.

This outdoor show complements the experience of patrons attending both the WorldStage! concert series and the Face of Utah Sculpture IV exhibition, both happening now at the Utah Cultural Celebration Center. These life-size sculptures greet patrons and line walkways of the plaza and grounds, engaging visitors by offering a visual arts experience along with performing arts

The story behind Dollores Shelledy's work is extraordinary, and one to be shared with the public. A self-taught sculptor, Mrs. Shelledy began her work at age 60. Now 81, she is still active in the arts community, creating new sculptures every year, and even teaching in public schools to pass along her art to children. Many of her works can be seen throughout the Valley, including many entrance pieces to Hogle Zoo.

The Utah Cultural Celebration Center is pleased to announce this partnership, and to host The Wild Life of Dollores Shelledy this summer. Bring the entire family to experience this amazing exhibit and enjoy the many things the Utah Cultural Celebration Center has to offer.
